DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. Applicant is reminded of the proper content of an abstract of the disclosure.

A patent abstract is a concise statement of the technical disclosure of the patent and should include that which is new in the art to which the invention pertains. If the patent is of a basic nature, the entire technical disclosure may be new in the art, and the abstract should be directed to the entire disclosure. If the patent is in the nature of an improvement in an old apparatus, process, product, or composition, the abstract should include the technical disclosure of the improvement. In certain patents, particularly those for compounds and compositions, wherein the process for making and/or the use thereof are not obvious, the abstract should set forth a process for making and/or use thereof. If the new technical disclosure involves modifications or alternatives, the abstract should mention by way of example the preferred modification or alternative.

The abstract should not refer to purported merits or speculative applications of the invention and should not compare the invention with the prior art.

Where applicable, the abstract should include the following:

- (1) if a machine or apparatus, its organization and operation;
- (2) if an article, its method of making;
- (3) if a chemical compound, its identity and use;
- (4) if a mixture, its ingredients;
- (5) if a process, the steps.

Extensive mechanical and design details of apparatus should not be given.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) The invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Leslie (4,367,422).

Art Unit: 2838

Leslie discloses a power on restart circuit in figure 1. The reset circuit includes four inverter 12, 14, 16 and 18, regulator 20 coupled to power supply 40 and threshold voltage is established by a voltage divider 22 and 24, see col. 2, line 6 to col. 3 line 15.

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) The invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

4. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being clearly anticipated by Gill (6,118,622).

Gill discloses a technique for robust resetting of spin value head in figures 1-3. Sensor 100, sense current via leads 108-109, current source 112, constant current through the layers 103-105, see col. 8, line 7 to col. 8, line 58.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Boomer discloses a short circuit protection circuit and method for output buffers.
